Octopus Tentacles

Expand your seafood menus with octopus

Bidfood offers sustainably wild-caught octopus from Australia, renowned for its superior quality and taste. Octopus is extremely versatile, but best eaten chargrilled, braised, confit, and pickling.

With its high perceived value, incorporating octopus into your menu can elevate your restaurant’s offerings, delighting diners with exquisite flavours and a premium dining experience.

Our Principals

South West Octopus is sustainably wild-caught in the cool, nutrient-rich ocean waters off the west and south coasts of Western Australia and snap frozen to lock in its freshness.

Whether it’s a chargrilled on the barbecue with aromatic spices or pickled in a tangy vinaigrette, South West Octopus is a deliciously tender culinary treat.

The meatiest, silkiest oysters of your choosing

We have a range of Japanese Oysters of various sizes to cater to diverse dining venues and service requirements.

Freshness and quality are the upmost criterias during selection of oyster products. To ensure our products are delivered safe and fresh, Bidfood has a stringent cold chain control that guarantees the quality of oysters to be as fresh as the day they were processed.

Our Principals

Hyogo oysters are grown in Murotsu Bay, Hyogo prefecture, where the water is rich in nutrients that flows down from the mountains.

These oysters are sashimi-grade, with a strong, sweet and fruity flavour. Its thinner shell and higher meat to-shell ratio makes it extremely popular and one of the largest sized oysters in the Japanese market!
